CONSORZIO TURISTICO

The Consorzio Turistico Sardegna Costa Sud targets the promotion of a region rich in surprises, but still really unknown. It was founded in 1983 by a group of Sardinian businessmen, sure about the touristic value of South Sardinia inside the European market.

After a precise marketing research the Consorzio Sardegna Costa Sud, founded in 1983, is able to offer various holiday packages, thanks to the professional members network offering the whole range of tourist services. The offer choice does not regard only the seaside, but it involves the environment, the local culture, the wines and gastronomy and the handicraft too. The hotels, members of the Consorzio show a long tradition in hospitality and a daily experience for business travellers.

All members are invited to take into consideration the severe rules regarding the offered services. The hotels are mostly situated inside the Capital City Cagliari, the close surroundings, but also along the west coast or the island's inner part. Beside accommodation some of them offer also meeting, congress and incentive facilities. Furthermore the Consorzio completes the accommodation offer with all requested services, thanks to members like travel agencies, tourist services, DMCs, and more.
